They are rapidly displacing OIL, CAN, and kerosene. Steer clear of a make-shift. Buy the real thing. It's better to be sure than to be sorry. Stirring Times in Norwich Fifty Years Ago This Week as the Pride of Eastern Connecticut Set Forth For the Seat of War—Recruiting Was Going On Vigorously and the Second Regiment Was Fast Filling at Camp Douglass.

The crowning event of this week 50 years ago was the departure of the Eighteenth Regiment for the front. It was a week when homes were disrupted and many precious plans given up, but with cheerful, for patriotism and sacrifice dwelt then, as even now, in eastern Connecticut breasts. The following items are taken from the Bulletin of this week 50 years ago.

Flag Pole for Camp Douglass.

Aug. 18—A splendid hickory flag-staff, the gift of Hon. William M. The first Sunday in September, sometimes known as Labor Sunday, in accordance with the recommendation of the Church Federation of this country and the American Federation of Labor, will be so observed in Norwich this year, if the plans now on foot are successful. Special emphasis will be laid on the value and necessity of a weekly rest day for workers of every sort. The social service committee of the local federation of churches has secured Rev. H. A. Atkinson of Chicago as the speaker at a union service to be held at Broadway church in the afternoon of that Sunday. Mr. Atkinson is a secretary for labor and social service in the National Federation of Churches, as well as in his own denomination, the Congregational, having become greatly interested in these subjects in his pastorate at Springfield, O., and Atlanta, Ga. That he enjoys the confidence of all who are familiar with his work is evident from the important positions to which he has now been called, and from the kindly testimonials of workingmen's organizations. The service will follow an order specially prepared for use throughout the country. It is hoped that this opportunity will appeal strongly both to employees and employers.

EIGHT NEW CASES FOR SUPERIOR COURT

Papers Filed on Thursday Include Three Divorces and Several Damage Suits.

Papers in eight new suits were filed with the clerk of the New London county superior court yesterday. Alexander E. Fournier brings in papers in a suit of replevin against Herbert E. Draper of Norwich and Thomas Snow of New London. He claims that horses, harness, carriages and heavy wagons are now in the possession of the defendants and are wrongfully held. The property of the defendants has been attached to the value of $1,000. In June of this year Fournier was indebted to the defendants in the sum of $5,000, payable on demand with interest at 5 per cent. To secure the payment of the note, Fournier mortgaged his property. On July 13, 1912, he claims that the defendants wrongfully took possession. The plaintiff claims $2,000 damages and the possession of his goods. This is another stage in a case which has been of much interest for some time.

Benjamin N. Pennell of New London brings suit against Frank H. Sullivan of New London in the sum of $4,000 for injuries received in a runaway caused by a collision. On August 3, 1912, the plaintiff was driving in a carriage on Glenwood avenue near Alewife cove in New London when the defendant's milk wagon, in charge of the defendant's agent, drove up in the rear and struck the plaintiff's carriage. In the runaway that ensued Pennell was thrown out when his wagon was overturned, and he was dragged a distance of 300 feet. For his injuries he claims $4,000.

Letitia G. Lewis of Waterford brings suit against George M. Landers of New Britain for $5,000 damages for injuries sustained while riding in a carriage with Mrs. Adeline I. Newbury on the Jordan road in Waterford January 15, 1912. The complaint charges the defendant with driving his automobile faster than a moderate speed, which was unreasonable and reckless. The plaintiff received injuries on account of a collision.

Edith E. Larkin, formerly Edith E. Jennison, asks for a divorce from Robert H. Larkin. The marriage of the two took place October 23, 1910. Both are of New London. The complaint charges adultery committed July 4, 1911, and August 16, 1912, on the excursion steamer running between New London and Newport with one May Havens.
Papers were filed in the town clerk's office in New London in a $15,000 suit of damages brought by James P. Maynard of Old Lyme against Henry C. Hine of Bristol. The plaintiff claims that a high-powered automobile owned by Mr. Hine ran into his carriage, while it was standing in front of his residence in Old Lyme throwing his out and causing a compound fracture of his leg.
